

The amendment to the September 10, 2018 minutes:

with the condition that property around any residential properties along any public right-of-way shall be buffered with a fast growing vegetation buffer in place around the project.